

6516207165.txt

As a public organization dedicated to high quality and timely communication for US citizens, the FCC should easily be convinced of the value of XM provided Instant Traffic and weather. I have a 2-hour commute each day to work, and both XM and my local news/weather/traffic stations are very important to me. I respectfully ask the FCC to reject the NAB's petition 04-160.